

FQA#3 – I already belong to other associations/industry groups. Why should I join the MHACC? What are the benefits?

- The MHAAC is a strong association with manufacturers and other business leaders represented at the Board level with common interests and common challenges
- Access to a wealth of information regarding manufactured housing, retailers, LLC's and financial institutions
- If you are a stakeholder in this industry, there are many benefits such as access to training Manufactured Housing Consultant (MHC®) course
- To be part of the MHAAC group of high quality industry leaders

- To experience the power of networking
- We are the “go-to” group for housing in Atlantic Canada
