

FQA#4 – What are the opportunities to network with other members and make business contacts?

- You have the opportunity to participate in our Annual General Meeting and also our General Membership meetings
- We participate in the Regional and National conferences of the Canadian Home Builder's Association (CHBA) and National events with the Canadian Manufactured Housing Institute (CMHI)
- You have the opportunity to share best practices and fresh ideas, to discuss issues affecting the industry and to resolve them

- You have the opportunity to share experiences and ideas with your peers and also to get to know the other stakeholders in your community
- We provide equal opportunities for anyone to be involved at the Board level and/or through attendance at meetings and training sessions